Trochus De Mesgouet, Marquis de la
Was born in Brittany France about 1550 ± Brought with King Henri III to colonize New France (1598). He was appointed Lieutenant general of Canada, HOCHELAGA, Newfoundland, and Labrador, and Adjoining countries. Set sail with a expedition consisting largely of convicts gathered from prisons (1598) and in a small vessel farther explored the mouth of the St. Lawrence river. Left 40 convicts on SABLE ISLAND, intending to transfer them to the mainland, but a tempest drove him back to France. Twelve survivors were taken off the island by CITE FD HOTEL (1603)
